

CALL FOR POSTDOCTORAL AND POST-PROFESSIONAL TRAINING OPPORTUNITIES

ACHIEVE Research Training Program

ACHIEVE (Addressing the Research Capacity Gap in Global Child, Adolescent & Family Health Disparities Utilizing Implementation and Data Sciences among Vulnerable Populations in Resource-limited Settings) provides trainees with dissemination and implementation (D&I) and data science research skills and knowledge through experiential learning, mentoring, and hands-on "immersion in global health implementation and data science research and methodologies

Program Overview

- 1 year appointment with 2-3 months within US-based lab and 9-10 month placement in Sub-Saharan Africa or other MICs participating in the program
- $10,000 research project seed funding
- Mentored research training in global health D&I and data science research
- Experiential learning in research and methodologies, Individualized consultation, professional development and research and publication support

Eligibility Criteria for Sub-Saharan Africa Candidates

- Interest in applying D&I and data science methodologies in a global health area, with special focus on projects related to: children, adolescents, and their caregiving families; parenting: HIV/AIDS; mental health: cancer; nutrition; and environmental health
- Commitment to spending 2-3 months at one of the 4 U.S. based institutions
- Must have completed a terminal degree (PhD, M8ChB, etc.) within the last six years
- Candidates must demonstrate a track record of excellence and potential to exhibit research trajectory In academia
- Must be a citizen of one of the following nations: Ghana, Kenya, Rwanda, Sierra Leone, South Africa, Uganda.

Application Information

- Please send your CV and a letter of intent describing your background and research Interests to Laura Peer at e-mail : Ipeer@wastl.edu for initial consideration.

Consortium Partners

- Unites States: Washington University in St. Louis, Boston College, New York University, University of Illinois Chicago
- Sub-Saharan Africa: University of Makeni, University of Kwazulu-Natal, University of Rwanda, University of Ghana, Makerere University, University of Nairobi

Contact person at the University of Rwanda

- Prof. Vincent Sezibera, Director Centre for Mental Health, College of Medicine and Health Sciences, e-mail: vsezibera@gmail.com, phone : 0788771289

Done Kigali 28 Feb 2022

Prof. Vincent Sezibera
Co-PI ACHIEVE, University of Rwanda