

Announcement

Emerging Scholars Initiative

University of Rwanda & Stellenbosch University

Joint-School 2021

ENHANCING POSTGRADUATE SUPERVISION

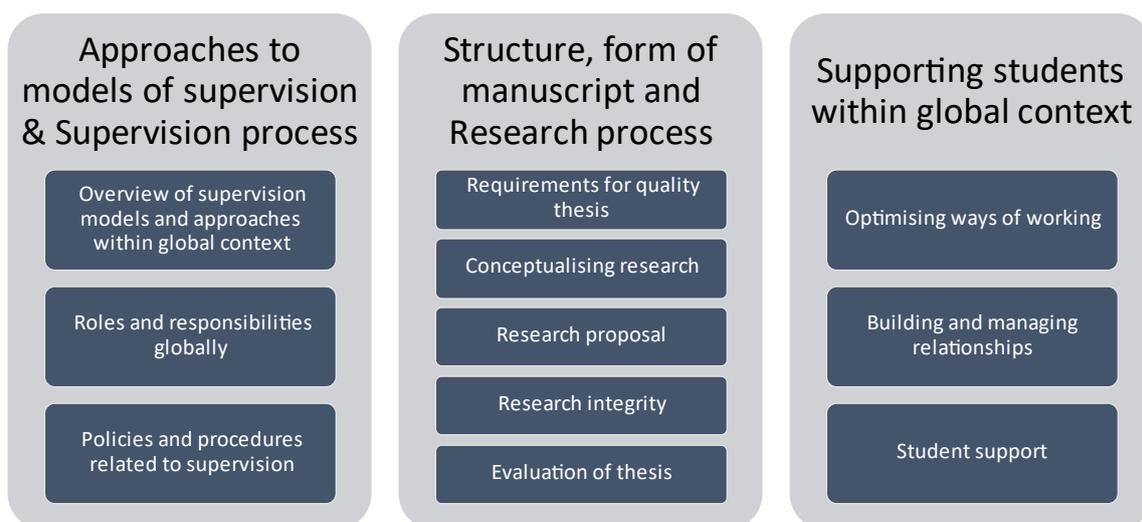

22-24 November 2021

The University of Rwanda in collaboration with Stellenbosch University will be hosting a course – Enhancing Postgraduate Supervision as part of the Emerging Scholars Initiative (ESI) joint school that commenced on August 23rd, 2021. The course is aimed at UR academic staff who are current or prospective supervisors. By the end of the course participants will 1) have an improved understanding of supervision models, the roles and responsibilities of supervisors, and supervision policies and procedures in place; 2) be able to impart skills relating to the writing of a quality thesis and implementable proposals, conceptualising research; and 3) apply the acquired knowledge in building constructive relationship with the supervisee that will result in timely completion of thesis.

This announcement calls all interested applicants to apply for the course using the link below:
<https://wintersummer.wufoo.com/forms/z1uyi4a804ffuhq/>

Applications are open until 12 November 2021. Admission will be based on a first come first served basis. The course will be taking place online and further arrangements about the course delivery will be announced at a later stage.

Overview for Enhancing Postgraduate Supervision course

Should you have any queries pertaining to the course please contact us using the details below.

Contact details:

University of Rwanda
Director of Research and Innovation
Prof. Bideri Ishuheli Nyamulinda
i.bideri@ur.ac.rw
Tel: 0788716140

The Emerging Scholars Initiative is situated within the Africa Centre for Scholarship at Stellenbosch University.

More information about the ESI and ACS can be found on <http://www.sun.ac.za/english/SUInternational/Pages/Programmes.aspx>